Re: Bayliss
v. New Jersey State Police, *et al.
Docket No.: 11-cv-0890
Our File No.: 12-386

Dear Magistrate Goodman:

The undersigned's firm represents Defendant Sergeant Richard Wambold. I am in receipt of Mr. Bowens's correspondence of today's date to the Court. Therein, Mr. Bowens states he is in receipt of Wambold's motion to seal certain documents but he has not been provided a copy of the documents to seal.

Please be advised that pursuant to the confidentiality order in this matter, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Civil Rule 5.3, a copy of the documents we seek to seal was not publicly filed on ECF. Instead, pursuant to instructions the undersigned received from the Clerk's Office, the subject documents were filed as a separate docket entry (docket entry #85) under temporary seal pending the Court's determination of the motion.

Yesterday, simultaneous with the electronic filing, my office forwarded courtesy hard copies of the motion along with the subject documents to Your Honor's chambers and to counsel of record subject to the confidentiality order. We anticipate that courtesy copies should be delivered tomorrow morning.

In the meantime, prior to filing this correspondence, I forwarded via email a copy of the subject documents to Mr. Bowens with an explanation of the above. I anticipate this should resolve any issues arising from Mr. Bowens' letter of today's date.
